From the Desk of Pastor Mark

Perhaps only one other time were we as Americans more divided than we are right now. And that time, we killed each other in the tens of thousands (the Civil War). Some might be comfortable just huddling on one side or the other and hanging with those who think as they do. But we in the church do not have that luxury. We are called to radical love, which requires radical unity. We are commanded to love even our enemies and persecutors. And that ain't easy.

So if you find yourself gliding down Faith Highway just now with no real challenges, perhaps you need to take a look at the map. Is there someone out there, perhaps one of "them" on the other side, that you have been unwilling to engage in civil, loving discourse? Have you been detouring around them? Have you been avoiding them? You see, loving at a distance really doesn't count. Love means seeking to understand. Love means really caring. Love means getting involved with people—even those people. Like I said, it ain't easy! But we are called. Look for opportunity for conversation. Look for common ground. Seek to understand.

A good guiding question is to ask, "What is important to you about believing as you do?" And then really listen.

Now, an important thing to remember is that you can only do your part. If you reach out to understand and are met only with venom or hatred, you cannot force the other person to be civil. If they are unwilling, then you can move on. But if even one good conversation helps bring you and one of "them" closer to understanding each other, isn't that worth the risk?

Pastor-Congregation Relations Support Team

The Ministry and Worship Commission, with the approval of the Board, decided to create a support team for the pastor and the congregation to aid in the resolution of any conflicts that may arise. The appointed team members are Bob Long, Dick Ambrosius and Angie Ruth. The Ministry and Worship Commission will oversee the team. Please contact one of the members of the team or the Ministry and Worship Commission if you feel you have not been able to resolve a conflict on your own. It is the Commission's hope that any areas of conflict can be resolved without hurt feelings. As the body of Christ, it is imperative that we work together to keep our church healthy.

Do not forget the Southern PA District Women's Spring Tea will be at West Shore COB in Enola on April 25. You need to register by April 15. The cost is $10.00. The speakers will be Mary and Brad Barrows, who are from the Harrisburg area. This is a good way to meet other COB members. Carpooling should be available. Registration forms can be obtained from Lona.

Why? What's in it for me, you ask? Well, that is probably the wrong question to ask where obeying God is concerned, but there is plenty. There is the real possibility of a real miracle. Like the disciple of Jesus who started out as a terrorist and became a beloved member of the community. Or the treasonous tax collector who likewise became a Brother. Like the black man who infiltrated the KKK and gently but relentlessly pursued a friendship until several of the KKK members reciprocated that friendship and then left the order in repentance. Like the red leaning man who became a true friend to his blue leaning neighbor. In my view, these miracles of unity are more important than the miracle of physical healing. Much more. Jesus said in John 13:34:

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. 35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

And He was talking to a former traitor (Matthew) and a former terrorist (Simon the Zealot). Before they met Jesus, they would have hated one another! But when people know we belong to Him, especially when they see how different yet how unified we are, they have the possibility to come to know Him, and to live forever! That is far more significant even than living some extra years after a cancer cure, as special as that is.

So please be willing to step off the sidelines and enter the game. Prayerfully choose civil and loving dialogue with one of "them."

~Pastor Mark
